Newsletter Issue 41

Newsletter available on our website

Dear Parents/Carers,

I can scarcely believe that this is the last newsletter of the year! It has certainly been a busy year! It has been wonderful to see the pupils so engaged in their learning and all the staff are proud of each and every one of them.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all staff for their continued hard work throughout the year and for the learning opportunities they have given our pupils both in and out of the classroom.

We have been very fortunate to have additional support from John Davey, a secondary school maths specialist, who has volunteered to teach the Y4's twice a week this term, and Jenny Crow from the Cornwall Service Music Trust, who has supported with delivering our weekly music lessons since January.

I would like to thank the children for all of their hard work, positive attitudes and exceptional behaviour for learning throughout the year, as well as the governors, parents, volunteers and the PTA for their support.

Our strong partnership with the school community is what makes this school so special.

We would like to wish you all a fantastic summer holiday and will look forward to seeing you all in September.

For those children and their families who are ending their Godolphin School journey, we wish you all the best for the future!

Best wishes, Colin Snook

Year 6 Leavers' Day at Newquay Zoo:

The Year 6s had a brilliant leavers' day at Newquay Zoo last Friday. Photos of our fun-packed day can be found on the Google Classroom.

Note from Governors:

Dear Parents and Carers,

As we reach the end of another school year, we would like to thank all our fantastic staff at Godolphin. This academic year we have welcomed four new members of staff who, I'm sure you'll agree, have fitted in brilliantly and added a wealth of skills and talent to our team. All our staff have worked extremely hard, developing and delivering interesting and inspiring lessons as well as giving the children many additional opportunities in the form of school plays and performances, school trips and camps alongside all the sporting endeavours! We would like to thank all the staff for helping to provide our children with such a fun and full school year.

As governors, we have continued our monitoring work and have been looking at many areas of school life including science, music, staff-wellbeing, behaviour and our extra-curricular provision. Thank-you to those of you who took the time to complete our surveys – it is really helpful for us to understand the wider parent perspective. Yet again, the highlight has been chatting to the children to gain their views and thanks to them we now have some excellent - if not entirely practical - ideas for additional after-school clubs!

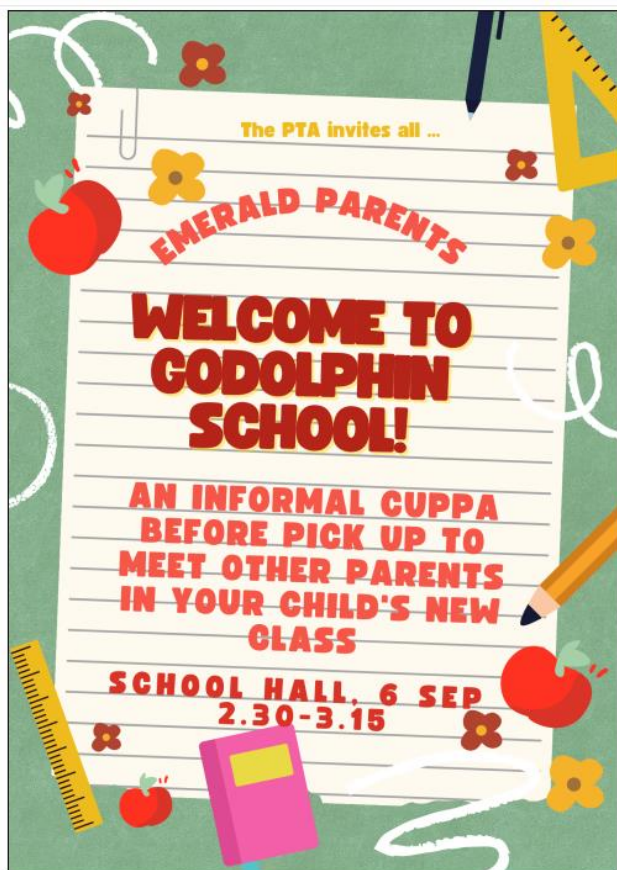

Being a school governor is a great way to help support the school and contribute to the education of the children. In September we will be holding a parent election as we look to recruit more governors to help us with our work. More information will come out at the start of term, but in the meantime if this is something you'd be interested in and would like to know about, please email me at emma.ivey@croftymat.org.

We would like to wish all our leavers well in their new schools, an exciting new chapter for them all. They are all super-stars and we're sure they will embrace the many opportunities available to them at secondary school.

All that is left is to wish everyone a lovely summer – see you in September!

Thanks, Emma Ivey (Chair of Governors)

PTA Emerald Class Meet & Greet:

Olympic Art Day:

Whilst the Year 6 pupils were out galivanting around Newquay Zoo on Friday, the Y4 and Y5 children joined together for an inspirational day of art based on the theme of the Olympics.

Leading the day was resident parent artist – Anna Pope – who meticulously planned an engaging and imaginative lesson where the children worked together to design and create a 3D cardboard sculpture centred on the Olympic rings.

The children enjoyed a fun and productive day and were delighted with the final structure which will now be entered into the Carleen Village Show. Watch this space for the result!

Thank you to Anna for helping us with this project! We look forward to working with her again soon.

Parent Pay:

A polite reminder to all our parents that there are a number of outstanding payments for school lunches and other items (including school trips).

Could we ask that you sign into your account and check your balances and make any necessary payments as soon as possible.

If you have any questions or queries, please get in touch.

Climate Care Workshops:

Following the workshops last week, Hayley Hill has emailed us to say: "Thanks again for having me on Thursday, I had a wonderful day with all 3 of your classes, they were so knowledgeable and enthusiastic, with lots of questions (which I love). It was an absolute pleasure to spend time with them".

As part of the workshops, the Year 2/3/4 class and Year 5/6 class created posters to show how much they are already doing to reduce greenhouse gas emissions in their own lives and the other things they would like to do, by themselves and with their families. These posters are on the school Google Classroom.

Y6 Leavers' Assembly:

Yesterday, we said farewell to our talented Y6s. The children put on a final assembly containing songs, a 'guess the baby' photo competition and some heartfelt speeches, sharing some of their memories from their time at Godolphin.

Mr Snook and Mrs Ellis spoke about each of the pupils and presented them with their priceless Godolphin teddies.

We would like to wish all the Y6 children the very best of luck in their transition to secondary school.

The Mental Health Support Team warmly invite you to attend...

Literary Festival:

Last Tuesday a group of Year 5 and Year 6 children were invited to attend a literary festival at Penwith College.

The day was divided into three workshops focussing on how authors create their characters, imaginary worlds and character development and were led by children's authors Lou Abercrombie, Vashti Hardy and Nicholas Browning.

The children's love of literature and passion for reading was evident during the workshops. They were each presented with a voucher (sponsored by Seasalt) to exchange for one of the author's books. One of the highlights was having their books signed by the author, when they were able to chat to them about their reading and interests.

The children were not alone in being a little starstruck, a highlight of the year for Mrs Knight was being 'encouraged' by Bradley and Dexter to "Go and speak to..." one of her favourite authors - Patrick Gale, who was there as patron of the Penzance Literary Festival.

The finale in the lecture theatre was led by Martin Brown, illustrator of the Horrible Histories series. He entertained the children with his humour and incredible drawings, one of which Mrs Gee talked him into letting us keep!

We were incredibly proud of the children's behaviour and engagement in the day - we will definitely be looking to sign up for next year's festival! Some quotes from the children:

"Amazing opportunity for us to meet authors - being in Cornwall we don't get the chance very often."

"I thought it was interesting that an author was so very different to his books. Nicholas Browning was very funny in person, his books are quite dark and frightening!"

"It was an amazing festival; I wish I could go again!"
